JOB TITLE: Financial Examiner V – Thrift Examinations (Loan Review)

JOB DESCRIPTION: Performs highly complex (senior level) financial examination work. Work involves primarily reviewing and classifying loans with regard to a risk management examination to determine their financial condition, level of internal control, and compliance with statutory requirements. Communicates with the examiner-in-charge and/or bank management. May supervise the work of others. Works under limited supervision with considerable latitude for the use of initiative and independent judgment.

EXAMPLES OF WORK PERFORMED:

- Conducts independent review and classification of loans during a Risk Management Examination/Visitation.
- Examines records to evaluate underwriting and credit administration practices (i.e., terms and structure loans, including length, interest rate, conveyances and pay terms) on loans to determine if loans are made within the bank's policy and in compliance with governing laws and regulations.
- Reviews unusual or complex loan files.
- Reviews compliance with legal lending limits and identifies concentrations of credit.
- Analyzes financial information, file documentation, and prepares questions for bank management regarding the credit reviewed.
- Assess the reasonableness of the Allowance for Credit Losses.
- Prepares documentation and work papers to support findings.
- Analyzes issues, discusses findings with the examiner supervising the loan review and/or the Examiner-in-charge. Makes recommendations to Examiner-in-Charge and/or Supervisory staff regarding loan portfolio deficiencies.
- May supervise the work of others.
- Performs related work as assigned.
- Other related tasks as assigned.

GENERAL QUALIFICATIONS:

- Five years of significant experience in loan review, credit analysis, or credit administration.
- Extensive knowledge of financial institution fundamentals in both state and federal regulatory environment. Work experience in a financial institution is desirable.
- Specialized knowledge or designations in real estate appraisal also a plus.
- Graduation from an accredited four-year college or university with major course work in business, finance, economics, or accounting, with a minimum of six hours in accounting required.

- Must possess a valid Texas driver's license and be willing to travel up to 70% of the time.
- Certified Public Accountant, Certified Internal Auditor, or Commissioned Bank Examiner designation a plus.

KNOWLEDGE, SKILLS, AND ABILITIES:

- Excellent written and verbal communication skills, including the ability to assist with training less experienced or lower-level examination staff.
- Personal computer proficiency, preferably with both word processing and spreadsheet software.
- Significant knowledge of rules and regulations relating to the lending industry.
- Extensive knowledge of state and federal statutes and regulations and Departmental policies.
- Strong analytical abilities: ability to develop and modify work procedures to improve efficiency.
- Interpersonal skills and ability to work as part of a team and self-motivation to work independently and unsupervised to complete work by identified deadlines in sometimes stressful situations.
- Ability to meet deadlines, handle multiple tasks and work independently with limited supervision.
- Ability to maintain confidentiality.

NOTE:

- The position may require additional work hours including evenings, weekends, and/or holidays to meet critical deadlines.
- The job posting in no way states or implies that the duties listed above are all inclusive. Employees are required to perform other duties as assigned.

External final male applicants who are 18-25 years of age will be required to furnish proof of registration or exemption from registration with the Selective Service System as a condition of state employment.

All offers of employment are contingent upon the candidate having legal authorization to work in the United States. Failure to present such authorization within the time specified by the U.S. Department of Labor will result in the offer being rescinded.

All offers of employment are also contingent upon satisfactory credit and background check.
